CANADIAN MUSEUM FOR HUMAN RIGHTS QUARTERLY FINANCIAL REPORT

For the three and six months ended September 30, 2011 (Unaudited)

The quarterly financial statements for the Canadian Museum for Human Rights (OMHR) (the Corporation) must be read in conjunction with the March 31, 2011 management discussion and analysis and annual audited financial statements.

The statements at September 30, 2011 are prepared in accordance with Public Sector Accounting Standards (PSAS). Effective April 1, 2011, the Corporation adopted public sector accounting standards applicable for a government not-for-profit organization (GNPO). These amended standards were retrospectively adopted and therefore the March 31, 2011 comparative figures have been restated. Key adjustments resulting from the adoption of these accounting standards are as follows:

Other comprehensive income is not recognized under public sector accounting standards applicable for a government not-for-profit organization. Consequently, other comprehensive $]v \}u v \}u \% CE Z v \bullet] A]v u CE v o v O v P CE CE % CE % CE š Operations. The March 31, 2011 annual financial statements have been adjusted to record amounts previously recognized as other comprehensive income as deferred contributions (related to depreciable assets) and net assets invested in capital assets (relating to non-depreciable assets). As a result previously reported accumulated other comprehensive income of $45.659 million has been reclassified to Deferred contributions and $4.979 million has been reclassified to Net assets (Investment in capital assets) which represents the investment in the land. Other comprehensive income previously recognized as income in the year ended March 31, 2011 has been reversed.$

Remeasurement gains and losses are recognized on the Statement of Remeasurement Gains and Losses under public sector accounting standards. The March 31, 2011 annual financial statements have not been adjusted as the standards prohibit retroactive application. Comparative amounts for remeasurement gains and losses are presented in accordance with the accounting policies applied by the Corporation as of March 31, 2011.

3. Adoption of new accounting standards:

Effective April 1, 2011, the Corporation adopted the Canadian public sector accounting standards applicable to government not-for-profit organizations. These amended standards were retrospectively adopted where possible and therefore the 2011 comparative figures have been restated. In addition, effective April 1, 2011 the Corporation early adopted Section PS 3450 Financial Instruments, and PS 2601 Foreign Currency Translation on a prospective basis, without restatement of 2011 comparative figures. Key adjustments resulting from the adoption of these accounting standards are as follows:

- (a) Assets under construction represent the costs of construction of the Museum building and are included in the definition of a capital asset under Section PS 4230 Capital assets held by not-for-profit organizations. An adjustment was made to the March 31, 2011 financial statements to reclassify the carrying value of the Assets under construction of $143,318 to Capital assets: Assets under construction.
- (b) Other comprehensive income is not recognized under PSAS.
