products meeting hazard to human health. (List of toxic substances managed under Canadian Environmental Protection Act) sustainability requirements are unable to sufficiently clean the area or the area cannot be replaced and represents a hazard to human health. (List of toxic substances managed under Canadian

The primary responsible party for these guidelines is Facilities Management. They are responsible party for these guidelines is Facilities Management. They are responsible party for these guidelines are implemented and that any contracted cleaning vendors informed of and adhere to the procedures outlined in these guidelines.

Ensure tracking systems are in place to track progress towards targets out guidelines;

Track product use and cleaning practices on an ongoing basis with sup Sustainability and Special Projects assistant who will produce quarte performance against targets and share these reports with the Camp Establish and implement processes and training required internaimplementation of these guidelines and ensure that any externa training in place;

If any implementation targets are not being met, investigated and a second second with the individuals involved in the relevant area to achieve better progress towards targets;

æ; nable

oropriate

- As much as possible, only sustainable cleaning products will be used. Please refer to the goals and tracking sections of this policy for additional information.
- Any cleaning that involves the use of carpet cleaners or the use of a non-sustainable cleaning product will be performed after regular business hours.
- Only hand soaps and alcohol-free hand sanitizers meeting the purchasing sustainability criteria listed below meet the requirements of this policy.
- Only disinfectants meeting the purchasing sustainability criteria listed below meet the requirements of this policy. Disinfectants will be kept locked in the janitorial closets and may only be used by cleaning staff.
- Cleaning chemicals will be stored in the janitor closets to prevent access for other occupants.
- Cleaning staff will re

- Regular inspections will be conducted to evaluate cleanliness. As a part of the inspection, cleaning staff will be interviewed to ensure that the cleaning and hard floor and carpet capturing fine particulates and must operate with a maximum sound level of 70 dBA, in accordance with ISO 11201.

Automated scrubbing machines must be equipped with variable-speed feed pumps and either (1) onboard chemical metering to optimize the use of cleaning fluids or (2) dilution control systems for chemical refilling. Alternatively, scrubbing machines may use tap water only, with no added cleaning products.

The responsible party will evaluate the Cleaning Guideline on