University of Winnipeg Sustainability Course Index: Geography

This page was last updated April, 2 courses are currently being offered.

academic calendar to determine which

GEOGRAPHY
Course # and Title	Description	Sustainability Designation
GEOG-1103 Introductory Human Geography II: Population, Place and Development	Focus on population change and migration, various forms of economic activity, ur()5t]5t]6V*n

GEOG-2408 Environmental Perception and Human Behaviour	Topics include perception of natural hazards, perception of natural resources and the management of natural resources; images of urban neighbourhoods, cities, metropolitan regions, provinces, countries, the world; mental maps; attitudes towards resource development and the implications for local, regional, and national planning	R
GEOG-2412 A Geographical Perspective on Tourism	Provides a broad overview of the world tourism industry that includes a geo-historical perspective on the origins, evolution, and growth of tourism; concep

GEOG-3413 Urban Revitalization: Rebuilding of Decaying Oties	Focuses on urban decline and revitalization efforts; broad approaches to revitalization, revitalizing the commercial sector, attracting people back to the inner city, leadership and the role of partnerships, and planning for long term sustainability will be among the topics discussed.	R
GEOG-3512 The Human Geography of Northern Canada	Investigates contemporary issues in Canada's arctic and subarctic regions, focusing on the three territories The purpose of this course is to provide students insight into how changes in the political, social and economic landscapes of these places impact the human geography of northern Canada.	R
GEOG-3443/4443		